Summer internship deadline Feb. 6

The Association offers several opportunities for college students hoping to further their education and gain valuable real-world experience with the world's leading beef cattle association. Paid summer internships offer goal-oriented students a chance to build upon writing, editing, photography and organizational abilities while developing knowledge of agriculture and the beef industry. Note these internships recently announced:

- ▶ The Events & Education Department is offering college sophomores, juniors or seniors the opportunity to assist with the planning and execution of junior shows and leadership events, and to gain experience in Association work.
- ▶ The Public Relations & Communications (PR) Department is accepting applications from college juniors or seniors studying communications, ag communications or a related field. Applicants with strong writing, editing and design backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
- ▶ The Angus Journal offers a college student the opportunity to be part of its editorial team. The 10-week, writing-intensive internship offers the selected intern an opportunity to participate in producing various publications, including the Angus Journal, the Angus Journal digital replica, the Angus Beef Bulletin, the Angus Beef Bulletin EXTRA, the Angus Journal Daily, editorial websites, and social media efforts.

Applications for these internships are due Feb. 6. For more information, check out the "Angus Internships" story in this issue on page 36.

Foundation scholarship applications available

The Angus Foundation will award a number of undergraduate and graduate scholarships this year. Scholarship recipients will be recognized at the 2015 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS) in Tulsa, Okla.

The eligibility requirements for these general Angus Foundation scholarships remain the same. Angus youth who are graduating from high school or in college currently may also be eligible for other Angus-related scholarships that are permanently endowed and managed by the Angus Foundation.

The Foundation will also make available graduate student scholarships to young men and women actively involved in the Angus breed who are pursuing advanced degrees.

Applicants must have, at one time, been a National Junior Angus Association (NJAA) member and must currently be a junior, regular or life member of the Association. Strong preference and priority will be given to applicants pursuing advanced degrees related closely to the beef industry.

The Angus Foundation undergraduate and graduate student scholarship application and guidelines are available at www.angusfoundation.org. The application deadline is May 1.

For more information contact the Angus Foundation at 816-383-5100.

New initiative to engage future cattle producers

To meet the needs of future cattle producers, the American Angus Association in March 2015 will launch a new program called Future Angus Stockmen. The intent is to impact the next generation through learning opportunities, while building a bond with the Angus breed and its member-driven organization.

The program is aimed toward college-age or recent graduates who want to raise high-quality Angus-based cattle. The program will offer educational opportunities that teach participants how to thrive in the cattle industry, social networking to connect them with fellow producers, and leadership development to instill an entrepreneurial spirit and drive to improve their businesses.

Participants will learn how to use proven information such as expected progeny differences (EPDs) and dollar-value indexes ($Values), while incorporating DNA technology to make data-driven decisions. Additional program benefits include enrollment in either AngusSource or AngusSource Genetic, and access to Beef Record Service (BRS) or MaternalPlus® at a reduced cost for submitting data.

Young people who enroll in the program will have the chance to apply for scholarships if they are or will be enrolled in a two- or four-year college majoring in agriculture. Scholarship winners will be announced at the 2015 National Angus Convention & Trade Show, Nov. 3-5, 2015, in Overland Park, Kan.

For more information, contact Ginette Kurtz, director of commercial programs at 816-383-5100 or gkurtz@angus.org.

Allied Angus Breeders Scholarship

The Angus Foundation Board of Directors approved funds to provide $1,000 scholarships to three youth who use Angus genetics in their seedstock or commercial operations. Awards will be given out in July 2015.

Applicants must be enrolled in a junior college, four-year college/university or other accredited institution for the fall of 2015. They can be an entering freshman or a continuing student in any undergraduate program. The applicant or applicant's parents/guardians must have transferred or been transferred a registration paper in the last 36 months (on or after May 1, 2012).

C designated for permanent ID in 2015

International letters are designated for each year of birth for livestock identification (ID). These designated letters are an easy option to use in conjunction with numbers when permanently identifying animals. For example, C001 and C002 could designate the first two calves born into your herd in the year 2015.

Using the international letter code is optional for Angus breeders.

For complete information about permanent ID (Rule 105) and naming animals (rules 102 and 107), access the online Breeder's Reference Guide. To access from www.angus.org, click on "Rules and Forms" in the pull-down menu under "About."

Black Books available today

Place your order for the 2015 Beef Record Service (BRS)/AngusSource® black books. The pocket-sized books include a calendar, as well as space to keep management records on your cow herd.

The 2015 books are available in any quantity for $3 each. To place orders, contact the AngusSource department at 816-383-5100 or blackbooks@angus.org.

Custom Cattle Tags offers affordable ID

Cattle producers looking for affordable ways to identify their herd should visit www.customcattletags.com, a service provided by the American Angus Association. Anyone can order ear tags, applicators, syringes and accessories.

Custom Cattle Tags provides high-quality, low-cost, customized ear tags, blank tags and prenumbered tags for cattle producers across the United States.

2014 Annual Report available upon request

The 2014 American Angus Association Annual Report is now available. The report features the business, progress and activities of the Association and its entities for fiscal year 2014, which ended Sept. 30, 2014. It is available online at www.angus.org.

Printed reports are available upon request by contacting 816-383-5100 or lmaudlin@angus.org.

Feed intake included in $F, $B

During the Association's biannual national cattle evaluation (NCE), the feedlot dollar value index ($F) included an additional update beyond the regular update of the economic assumptions. The feed intake expected progeny difference (EPD), which is calculated behind the scenes as a component of the residual average daily gain (RADG) EPD, was incorporated into $F, thereby affecting the beef value index ($B) as well.

For additional information, see the "By The Numbers" column on page 82 of the December 2014 Angus Journal.

Request sale-day kits

When planning your production sales, don't forget to request your sale-day kit from the Association's Public Relations & Communications (PR) Department. The kits contain posters for decorating your sale facilities, as well as a sample of Association literature for you to distribute to your customers. Contact the PR Department for your kit or order it online. Please allow two weeks for delivery.

Herds of the century

The American Angus Association initiated the Century Award to recognize its members and their families who have been in continuous production of registered-Angus cattle for at least 100 years. Award recipients will be recognized with an engraved plaque at the Association's Annual Awards Banquet, notice will be given in the Angus Journal, and a list will be maintained on the Association's website.

Contact the Events & Education Department for more information or for applications. This year's awards were presented during the Awards Recognition Breakfast in Kansas City, Mo.

MaternalPlus® sale book inserts available

Producers enrolled in the MaternalPlus program can promote that fact in their sale book and other advertising using ready-to-go promotional materials available through the Angus Journal's Special Services Department. The sale book inserts and advertising materials will feature the program's new logo and a description of the program.

MaternalPlus is a voluntary, inventory-based reporting system designed to capture additional reproductive trait data and, ultimately, expand reproductive and lifetime productivity tools. By using MaternalPlus, producers will receive calving ease, birth weight and weaning weight expected progeny differences (EPDs) for calves out of inventoried cows, even before they are registered. Within AAA Login, MaternalPlus enrollees will have access to herd productivity summaries, such as in-herd genetic trend, that are only available to those enrolled in the program. In addition, MaternalPlus allows producers to submit cow disposal codes and reason designations, which keeps an accurate record of why a cow left the herd.

To learn more about MaternalPlus, visit www.angus.org or AAA Login.

The Angus Report doubles airings each week on RFD-TV

The Angus Report delivers Association and industry news each week on RFD-TV. As of Nov. 1, 2014, the news program increased its airings from two to four times per week.

I Am Angus airs this winter

I Am Angus focuses on the heart of the Angus business — its people, its heritage and why people have chosen to be a part of it. Initiated in 2008, the Association-produced documentary series continues this fall and winter across America. The program aired Thanksgiving evening and is scheduled to air Christmas night and the evening of Jan. 5, 2015, on RFD-TV.

Angus Mobile is a free, smartphone application for the iPhone, iPad and Android devices that allows app users to update herd data no matter where they are on their farm or ranch. Download the easy-to-navigate app and gain access to the latest news, sale reports, show results, EPDs and $Values, percentiles and much more. Visit www.angus.org for more details.

Lifetime membership options

The American Angus Association offers producers a lifetime membership option. The $1,500 membership lasts throughout the life of the sole person named on the membership. Payments may be broken into three nonrefundable yearly installments.

Lifetime memberships can be issued to one person only, and are not meant for partnerships. The membership option may be used for a farm name, provided only one person is included on the membership.
